

De/Centering Southeast Asia

The 5th SEASIA Biennial International Conference 2024

July 18–20, 2024 University of the Philippines Diliman, Quezon City, Philippines

CONFERENCE PROGRAMME

(as of June 22, 2024)

Organized by:

with

Philippine Center for Economic Development

Partners:

Center for Southeast Asian Studies
Kyoto University

OICA

UP Center for Ethnomusicology
University of the Philippines

TOYOTA

VIBAL

Member institutions:

Day 1
July 18, 2024

REGISTRATION

8:00am / GT-Toyota Asian Center Auditorium

OPENING PROGRAM

9:00am / GT-Toyota Asian Center Auditorium

Opening Message

Atty. Angelo A. Jimenez

President, University of the Philippines

Message

Dr. Antoinette Raquiza

Chair, Consortium of Southeast Asian Studies in Asia (SEASIA)

Chair, SEASIA 2024 Conference Host Committee

Musical Performance

Introduction of the Guest of Honor

Dr. Henelito Sevilla, Jr.

Dean, Asian Center

Guest of Honor

Dr. Maria Serena I. Diokno

Professor Emeritus, Department of History

University of the Philippines

Break

10:30AM-11:00PM

Parallel Session 1

11:00AM-12:30PM / School of Economics

ROOM 1

Timor-Leste in history and international relations (DPP06)

Chair: TBA

Room 1

Kisho Tsuchiya (Kyoto University)

“Decolonizing East Timorese History.”

Laurentina (mica) Barreto Soares (National University of Timor Lorosa and David Webster (Bishop’s University)

“Women and gender in Timor-Leste diplomacy.”

Gus Miclat

“Breaking the Silence: the story of APCET, child of people’s struggle.”

ROOM 2

Cultural Fluctuations in Southeast Asia: Text, Television, and Technology (FPP01)

Chair: TBA

Norshahril Saat (ISEAS-Yusof Ishak Institute Singapore)

“Middle East Soft Power in Southeast Asia: Cultural Imitation through the A-wave?”

Dorcas Gan (ISEAS-Yusof Ishak Institute Singapore)
“The Influence of Asian (Popular) Culture in Southeast Asia.”

Gwendolyn Yap (ISEAS-Yusof Ishak Institute Singapore)
“The Effect of Vtubers on Singaporean and Indonesian Youths.”

Afra Alatas (ISEAS-Yusof Ishak Institute Singapore)
“Independent Bookstores in Malaysia: East vs West.”

ROOM 3

Political History and Narrative Arcs (BPA07)

Chair: TBA

Mark Vincent Nogra (West Visayas State University)
“Political Redemption in Southeast Asia: Mapping the Redemption of Marcos, Anwar, and Shinawatra Within the Literature.”

Maria Karina Bolasco National Commission for culture and the Arts)
“The Life of Joy: Untold Story of a Woman Revolutionary.”

Karlo Mikhail Mongaya (University of the Philippines Diliman)
“Seizing the Momentum”: The communist resistance in Cebu during the anti-Marcos struggle, 1972-1986

ROOM 4

Autonomous Knowledge Production (APA03)

Chair: Ramon Guillermo (University of the Philippines Diliman)

Jemma Purdey (Monash University) and Antje Missbach (Bielefeld University)
“Pocketing the prize: Lingering patterns of prestige in Southeast Asia studies.”

Faris Rahmadian (Wageningen University and Research) and Otto Hospes (Wageningen University and Research)
“Disentangling Southeast Asian Diplomacy and Negotiation Strategies: De-Centering Western Perspectives on Diplomacy.”

Marvin Doods de Castro (University of the Philippines Mindanao)

“Ascertaining Extent of State Power in Regulating Teachings in Madrasah Schools.”

Caroline Schopf and Ramon Guillermo (University of the Philippines Diliman)

“Decolonization of knowledge Production and the fostering of Autonomous Social Science Traditions in the Global South: The responsibilities of Global North Academics.”

ROOM 5

Contesting Authoritarianism: Southeast Asian Film and Video (EPP01)

Chair: TBA

Patrick Campos (University of the Philippines Diliman)

“Chanthalay: Haunting as Constitution of Lao Film History.”

Iggy Cortez (University of California Berkeley)

“The Antiauthoritarian Aesthetics of the Ecumenical Garden in Apichatpong Weerasethakul’s Fireworks .”

Bliss Cua Lim (University of Toronto)

“Of Deferred Remembering and Enforced Forgetting: Respeto and Radical Archives.”

Robert Diaz (University of Toronto)

“A Bouquet of Queer Roses: Kabaklaan and the Philippine Pink Power Movement.”

ROOM 6

Local Crisis Response (HPA01)

Chair: Kerby Alvarez (University of the Philippines Diliman)

Laely Nurhidayah (National Research and Innovation Agency [BRIN])

“Gender, Disaster Risk Reduction and Nature Based Solution: Lesson Learned from Demak.”

Martha Balagat (Center for Environmental Concerns)

“What’s on the Horizon? Entanglements of Global Imaginaries in Reclamation Projects on the Manila Bay.”

Lily Beth Lumagbas (University of the Philippines Diliman)

“Will and Hope among the Informal Settlers in the Post-Covid Society.”

Virgemarie A. Salazar (University of the Philippines Diliman)

“Knowledge brokering and collective learning in communities of practice: The case of ASEAN-Swiss Partnership in Social Forestry and Climate Change (ASFCC).”

Narti Purwaningsih (National Research and Innovation Agency [BRIN]) and Haning Romdiati (National Research and Innovation Agency [BRIN])

“Sustainable Agriculture Initiatives: Analyzing Community Participation in Organic Farming Practices as a Response to Ecological Crises–Insights from Bali.”

ROOM 7

Cultural Organizations & Social Movements in SEA (DPA08)

Chair: Leonora Angeles (University of British Columbia)

Amado Anthony III Mendoza (University of the Philippines Diliman and Kyoto University)

“Three New Articles: The Spirit of Yen-an in Three Cultural Manifestos from SEA.”

Francis Kristoffer L. Pasion (National Historical Commission of the Philippines)

“Wenceslao Vinzons and the Philippines’ Early Initiatives Toward Pan-Malayan Unity.”

Yu-sheng LIN

“Transnational Interactions of Chinese Temples between Taiwan and Phuket, Thailand.”

Lunch

12:30PM-1:30PM

Parallel Session 2

1:30pm-3:00PM / School of Economics

ROOM 1

Appraising Rodrigo Duterte's Legacy in the Philippines (Part 1) (BPP03)

Chair: Rogelio Alicor Panao (University of the Philippines Diliman)

Jose Jowel Canuday (Ateneo de Manila University)

“The Mayor Rodrigo Duterte: Governing, Policing, and Spectacles in the Pre-Presidential Decades.”

Patricio Abinales (University of Hawai'i at Manoa)

“Duterte and the Left and the Left on Duterte.”

Sol Iglesias (University of the Philippines Diliman)

“Rodrigo Duterte: Between Davao City and Malacañang.”

Karl Hapal (University of the Philippines Diliman)

“Ang pumatay ng dahil sa'yo: the radicalization of nationalism and the vilification of human rights.”

ROOM 2

Building cosmopolitan lifeworlds: Southeast Asian migrant women's narratives from the margins (DPP03)

Chair: TBA

Ying Xin Show (Australian National University)

“Migrants write back: Indonesian women workers’ narratives from Malaysia.”

Jafar Suryomenggolo

“A Space of Their Own: Testimonies of Thai Sex Workers.”

Kristine Aquino (University of Technology Sydney)

“Migrant domestic workers, transformative leisure practices, and remaking identities from the urban margins.”

Hayeon Lee (Australian National University)

“Marriage migrant women’s stories and multiple selves between Vietnam and South Korea.”

ROOM 3

From objects of study to emblems of heritage: Local expertise and the making of Southeast Asian natures (APP01)

Chair: TBA

Maitrii Aung-Thwin (National University of Singapore)

“Autonomous Spaces? Conservation, Buddhism, and the Making of the Alaungdaw Kathapa National Park in Myanmar (1893-1983).”

Ma. Florina Orillos-Juan (De La Salle University)

“Protecting Malampaya Sound’s Mangrove Ecosystem: History and the Intersections of Indigenous Knowledge and Community Participation.”

Anthony D. Medrano (National University of Singapore)

“Botany Braided: How the study of obat asli shaped the rise of plant-based nationalism in twentieth-century Indonesia.”

Ruel V. Pagunsan (University of the Philippines Diliman)

“The Conservation of Sierra Madre: History, Science and Heritage in the Southern Luzon Highlands (1930-1992).”

ROOM 4

Cybersports, Games, and Digital Media (IPA02)

Chair: Dennis Blanco (University of the Philippines Diliman)

Enzo Le Guiriec (University Jean Moulin Lyon 3)

“A ludo-narrative approach of war and the Japanese invasion of China in Shadow Hearts.”

K.T. Wong (Cornell University)

“Conceptualizing Region in Game Studies via the Debut of Esports in the Southeast Asian Games.”

Aulia Hadi (Research Center for Society and Culture [PRMB] and National Research and Innovation Agency [BRIN])

“Hosting 2023 FIFA U-17 World Cup: When the round ball played between media and politics in Indonesia.”

ROOM 5

Heritage Textiles and Fashion (EPA06)

Chair: Crisanta Flores (University of the Philippines Diliman)

Jennifer Rebecca Ortuoste (University of Santo Tomas)

“Kasarinlan ng Kasuotan: Mapping the Mediatization of Philippine Heritage Clothing Influence.”

Maritess Rulona (Davao del Sur State College and Cebu Normal University)

“Empowering Women Handweavers: A Cultural Comparative Tale of Batak Toba and T’boli’s Legendary Textiles.”

Hj. Indriya. SE. (Universitas Ibn Khaldun Bogor)

“Product Halal Fashion: The Next Industry to Support Sustainable Development Goals.”

Nyoman Arisanti (National Research and Innovation Agency)

“Ikat Weaving: Representation of Sustainable Culture.”

ROOM 6

Roundtable on “Strategizing the role of Think Tank in shaping of the Southeast Asian Regional policies in Indo-Pacific Region: achievements, challenges and the prospect (GPP03)

Chair: Hsin-Huang Michael Hsiao (Kyoto University)

Speakers:

- Predeep Chauhan (National Maritime Foundation, India)
- Masato Seko (The Nippon Foundation, Japan)
- Mohammad Hasan Ansori (The Habibie Center, Indonesia)
- Alan H. Yang (Taiwan-Asia Exchange Foundation, Taiwan)

ROOM 7

Inequality in the Formal and Informal Sectors (CPA03)

Chair: Lianne Angelico Depante (University of the Philippines Open University)

Twina Paramesthi (Trend Asia)

“Labor Dynamics in Morowali Industrial Park: Decoding Chinese Investments, Nickel Processing, and the Electric Dreams of Indonesia.”

Laili Rahayuwati (National Research and Innovation Agency), Syahmida S. Arsyad (National Research and Innovation Agency), Rindang Ekawati (National Research and Innovation Agency), Muhammad Dawam (National Research and Innovation Agency), Rahmadewi (National Research and Innovation Agency), Septi Nurhayati (National Research and Innovation Agency), Ikhsan Fahmi (National Research and Innovation Agency), and Sherllina Rizqi Fauziah (National Research and Innovation Agency)

"Factors That Influence the High Number of Elderly People Working in the Informal Sector"

Sonyaru Satiti (Universitas Gadjah Mada) and Umi Listyaningsih (Universitas Gadjah Mada)

“Analysis of Indonesia Income Inequality 2018-2023.”

Break

3:00PM-3:30PM

Parallel Session 3

3:30PM-5:00PM / School of Economics

ROOM 1

Appraising Rodrigo Duterte's Legacy in the Philippines (Part 2) ()

Chair: Sol Iglesias (University of the Philippines Diliman)

Venarica B. Papa (University of the Philippines Diliman)

“The Human Rights Defenders’ Pushback in the Shadow of the War on Drugs.”

Adele Webb (University of Canberra)

“The Duterte Presidency: A Product of “People Power”?”

Rogelio Alicor Panao (University of the Philippines Diliman)

“Performance populism: Philippine presidents and their crisis rhetoric, 1987-2022.”

Mark Thompson (City University of Hong Kong)

“Duterte’s (Murderous) Place in the Global Populist Panoply.”

Christiane France Collantes (De La Salle University)

Discussant

ROOM 2

New Wealth Creation in Emerging Economies (CPA01)

Chair: Eduardo Tadem (University of the Philippines Diliman)

Phone Soe (Chiang Mai University School of Public Policy)

“Foreign Direct Investment Policy Entrepreneur’s Resilience Across Regimes in Myanmar.”

Dennis Blanco (University of the Philippines Diliman)

“The Maharlika Investment Fund: Benchmarks, Issues, Challenges, and Prospects.”

Rupanshi Pruthi (Guru Nanak Dev University)

“Innovation Capabilities, Export Performance and Catching-up trajectory of Emerging Asian Economies.”

Lianne Angelico Depante (University of the Philippines Open University)

“A Comparative Study of the Philippine and Taiwan Semiconductor Industry: Lessons for Developing Countries.”

Shingo Mikamo (Shinshu University)

“Why Did the Philippines Succeed? - The Politics of Financial Stability in Developing Countries -.”

ROOM 3

Local Knowledge (APA05)

Chair: Julius Bautista (NUS College)

Keng Hang Fan (Sun Yat-Sen University)

“Modernization or cultural preservation: the Batek's dilemma on Indigenous tourism in Malaysia.”

Bebby Pane (Pesisir Lestari)

“Deconstructing 'Local Wisdom' in State-led Coastal Community Policy.”

I Nyoman Mahaputra (Warmadewa University), Nyoman Nuri Arthana (Universitas Warmadewa), and Ni Wayan Nurwarsih (Universitas Warmadewa)

“In the era of globalization, how can we preserve and develop local architectural knowledge? A lesson from the lontar.”

Oktavi Andaresta (National Disaster Management Authority of Indonesia)

“Towards Resilient Indonesia: Centering Local Wisdom and Practicing Slow-Thinking in Disaster Risk Reduction.”

Ni Putu Eka Juliawati (National Research and Innovation Agency, Republic of Indonesia), I Made Geria (National Research Center and Innovation Agency, Republic of Indonesia), Retno Handini (National Research Center and Innovation Agency, Republic of Indonesia), Unggul P. Wibowo (Ministry of Energy and Mineral Resources), and Truman Simanjuntak (Center for Prehistory and Austronesian Studies)

“Local Wisdom for Preserving the Sustainability of Conservation Forests in The New Capital City Area of Indonesia.”

ROOM 4

Empire and Epistemology (DPA11)

Chair: Fernando Santiago Jr. (De La Salle University)

Dom Roongurang (Kyoto University)

“Lawyer of Empire: Reconsidering the Life of Masao Tokichi in the Age of Imperialism.”

Jely Galang (University of the Philippines Diliman)

“Chinese Entrepreneurs, Revenue farming, and the Spanish Colonial State in the Philippines, 1778-1898.”

Karl Ian Cheng Chua (University of the Philippines Diliman) and Ron Bridget Vilog (De La Salle University)

“Japanese Studies in the Philippines.”

Leonido Gines, Jr. (University of the Philippines Diliman)

“Reiterating theory in architecture: A transnational approach to the teaching of architectural theory in the Philippines.”

Ying-kit Chan (National University of Singapore)

“Southeast Asian Studies in China.”

ROOM 5

Examining the ASEAN, Alliances and Maritime In/Security Dynamics ()

Chair: Herman Kraft (University of the Philippines Diliman)

Herman Kraft (University of the Philippines Diliman)

“ASEAN and the US Indo-Pacific Strategy: Re-centering or De-centered?.”

Charmaine Misalucha-Willoughby (De La Salle University)
“Alliances and Maritime Security in the South China Sea.”

Jaime B. Naval (University of the Philippines Diliman)
“China and Select Southeast Asia Claimants in the South China Sea: Policies and Practices (2012 to 2023).”

Edcel John Ibarra (University of the Philippines Diliman)
“Philippines-China Bilateralism on the South China Sea Disputes.”

ROOM 6

Southeast Asian Studies Viewed from China’s Area Studies: Reflecting on its historical and intellectual trajectories (DPP07)

Chair: TBA

ZHANG Zhenjiang (Jinan University) and ZHANG Guiji
“Establishing China’s Southeast-Asianology: Why, What and How.”

ASEAN Studies Programme, Institute of Area Studies at Peking University (Peking University)
“Taking ASEAN Studies as a Pioneering Initiative for Advancing the Development of China’s Area Studies as a Discipline.”

MA Siyan (Yunnan University) and LI Chenyang (Yunnan University)
“Reflections on Constructing a System of Area Studies with Chinese Experience—A Case Study on Myanmar Studies.”

LIU Zhiqiang (Guangdong University of Foreign Studies)
“Southeast Asian Language Majors and the Construction and Development of Southeast Asian Studies in China—From Language Support to Subject Support.”

Niu Junkai
“From “barbarians”, “Nanyang” to ASEAN: A Reflection on the Intellectual Contours of China’s Southeast Asian Studies.”

Li Yiping (Xiamen University)
“Nanyang Studies: China’s Area Studies in view of the experiences of Xiamen University.”

ROOM 7

Social Responses to Technological Change (IPA03)

Chair: Virgемarie Salazar (University of the Philippines Diliman)

Muhammad Ulil Abshor (Universitas Islam Internasional Indonesia)

“Finding A Discursive Interaction between Religious and State Authorities in Indonesia and Malaysia: The Case of Prohibition and Permission of Cryptocurrency.”

Niken Febrina Ernungtyas (Universitas Indonesia) and Irwansyah (Universitas Indonesia)

“Communication for Successful Aging in Indonesia: The Exploration of CEMSA Variables.”

Emille de la Cruz (Ateneo de Manila University) and Jerik Cruz (Massachusetts Institute of Technology)

“Platforming populism: the services transition, precarious urbanization, and digital platforms in the rise of illiberal populism in the Philippines.”

Amparo Adelina Umali III (University of the Philippines Diliman) and Janette C. Yuvienco (National Taiwan University)

“Towards Understanding the Social Life in Southeast Asia through MoviExchange for a Cause --through SDGoals & Beyond.”

Day 2
July 19, 2024

KEYNOTE LECTURE 1

9:30am / GT-Toyota Asia Center Auditorium

Dr. Farid Syed Alatas
National University of Singapore

Break

10:30AM-11:00PM

Parallel Session 4

11:00AM-12:30PM / School of Economics

ROOM 1

Confronting Marginality: reflections and lessons from the field (APP02)

Chair: TBA

John Erwin S. Bañez (University of the Philippines Diliman) and Karl Hapal (University of the Philippines Diliman)

“Assessing the Role of the Philippine Middle Class as Guardians of Democracy: An Empirical Analysis.”

Lisa Victoria N. Rosel (University of the Philippines Diliman)

“Just Energy Transition for Whom?”

Jennie Lyn C. Reyes (University of the Philippines Diliman)

“Deepening the Divide: The Marginalization of Non-Moro IPs in BARMM and its Implications in Philippine State Formation.”

Ivy Marian P. Panganiban (University of the Philippines Diliman)

“Unpacking the complexities of resilience-building in compounded emergencies.”

ROOM 2

Post-Pandemic Southeast Asia: Systemic Perils and Peoples’ Alternatives (DPP05)

Chair: Mary Ann Manahan (University of the Philippines Center for Integrative and Development Studies and Ghent University)

Dr. Eduardo C. Tadem (University of the Philippines Diliman)

“Post-Pandemic Southeast Asia: Systemic Perils and Peoples’ Alternatives.”

Benjamin B. Velasco (University of the Philippines Diliman)

“Alternatives to the Global Supply Chain Model: Looking at workers struggles in the Philippines.”

Ananenza Aban (University of the Philippines Center for Integrative and Development Studies)

“From Land Occupations to Sustainable Settlements: Underexplored Narratives from Serikat Petani Pasundan in Indonesia.”

Rafael Vicente V. Dimalanta (University of the Philippines Center for Integrative and Development Studies)

“Asserting Inclusion in Housing and Urban Development: From the Barikadang Bayan, Street Occupation, Tumbalik to the Community Development Plan.”

Jose Monfred Sy (University of the Philippines Center for Integrative and Development Studies)

“Alternative Development in Southeast Asia: Weaving together Practices from the Grassroots and Social Movements.”

ROOM 3

Economic History (FPA04)

Chair: Francisco Jayme Paolo Guiang (University of the Philippines Diliman)

Kar Yern Chin (Asia School of Business)

“Jostling for right of way”: Hawker labor, politics, and discourse in Malaysia, 1957–69”

Thithiya Laoan (Chiang Mai University)

“Emerging Rural Entrepreneurship in Thung Kula Rong Hai District: A Case Study of Agricultural Machinery Business Since the Late 1970s.”

Levi Cahyani (Universitas Indonesia)

“Local Market Creation in Southeast Asia: Resilience Gresik Local Mining Entrepreneurs in the 20th Century.”

ROOM 4

Social Responses to Ecological Crisis (HPA03)

Chair: Gus Miclat

Julie de los Reyes (Kyoto University)

“Beyond the core: How Southeast Asia matters in low-carbon transitions.”

Noorhidayah (UIN Sunan Kalijaga)

“Centering The Margin: Rational Egoism Practice as Respond to The Industrial Agriculture Fallacy.”

Tria Novlantika (University of Gadjah Mada), Muhammad RM Fayasy Failaq (University of Gadjah Mada), and Ahmad Yani (University of Gadjah Mada)

“Re-constitutionalizing the Right to Climate Change as Fundamental Rights in the Indonesian Constitution (Comparative Study of the Constitutions of Southeast Asia Countries).”

ROOM 5

Political Narratives and Power (BPA05)

Chair: Ma. Victoria R. Raquiza (University of the Philippines Diliman)

Kevin Nielsen Agojo (City University of Hong Kong)

“Populism, historical legacies, and performativity of police work in wars on drugs: The cases of Indonesia and the Philippines.”

Jean Encinas-Franco (University of the Philippines Diliman)

“Resisting the Hero Discourse in Advocating for Filipino Migrant Nurses”

Yusnan Hadi Mochtar (Universitas Nahdlatul Ulama Kalimantan Timur)

“Disinformation in Southeast Asia: A Story from the 2024 Indonesia Election by Looking the International Dimension.”

Danilo Reyes (City University of Hong Kong)

“Rethinking ‘democratic peace’: The formation and persistence of political violence in post-authoritarian.”

ROOM 6

Norms and Values (GPA04)

Chair: Aries Arugay (University of the Philippines Diliman)

Quah Say Jye (University of Cambridge)

“A History of International Thought of “The Singapore School”: Civilizationism, Realism, and the Crisis of the Liberal International Order.”

Matteo Piasentini (University of the Philippines Diliman)

“Authoritarianism or “political entrenchment”? Understanding the effect of U.S.-China Rivalry in Asians’ political preferences.”

Allexandra Dasmariñas (West Visayas State University), Ariel Joseph Dela Cruz (West Visayas State University), Alfred Aikman Nagallo (West Visayas State)

University), Justin Asher A. Amigable (West Visayas State University), and Herlejhean Michelle Uy (West Visayas State University)

“Education as Soft Power Resource in the Philippines: A Comparative Study of the American Corners and Confucius Institutes as Tools in Cultural Diplomacy.”

Lin (Kirin) Pu (Tulane University) and Kevin Nielsen Agojo (City University of Hong Kong)

“How Does Personalized Foreign Policy Reinforce Illiberal Practices? Philippine Law Enforcement Cooperation with China under Duterte.”

ROOM 7

Accountability & Governance (BPA09)

Chair: Teresa Encarnacion Tadem (Independent Researcher)

Amalina Yasmin Mohd Sokri (Australian National University)

“Politicians on Trial: Re-constructing Judicial Legitimacy in Malaysia (2018-2023).”

Hong Da Siau (National Taiwan University)

“Ethnic, Economic Inequality and Regime Support in Southeast Asia”

Matthew Manuelito Miranda (University of the Philippines Diliman)

“Reducing LGBTQ+ Inequalities in Southeast Asia: Exploring SOGIE-Related Anti-Discrimination Policy Making in the ASEAN Region.”

Hansley Juliano (Ateneo de Manila University)

“The COVID-19 Pandemic's Impact on Philippine Civil Society.”

Lunch

12:30PM-1:30PM

Parallel Session 5

1:30PM-3:00PM / School of Economics

ROOM 1

PART A Rethinking and Decentering Trade, Exchange and Engagement in Island SouthEast Asia (EPP03)

Chair: TBA

Lynette Russell (Monash University)

“The most eastern arm of the spice trade: rethinking the role of Marege, and extent of pre-European trade.”

Lilis Mulyani (National Research and Innovation Agency [BRIN]) and Widya Safitri (National Research and Innovation Agency [BRIN])

“Championing Local Narratives on Spice Route Research.”

Priyambudi Sulistiyanto (Monash University)

“Adrian Lopian, South Sulawesi and Trepang Fishing History: An Intellectual Travelogue.”

Uus Faizal Firdausy (National Research and Innovation Agency [BRIN])

“Contemporary Dynamics of Indonesian Spice Routes: Salted Fish Interactions between Belitung and Java Islands.”

ROOM 2

Political Ecology of Climate Change (HPA02)

Chair: Henelito Sevilla, Jr. (University of the Philippines Diliman)

Mucahid Bayrak (National Taiwan Normal University)

“Climate migration in South and Southeast Asia: Current state of knowledge, potential pitfalls, and ways to move forward.”

Harun Talha Ayanoglu (National Chengchi University)

“From Exposure to Conflict: Climate Change and Political Violence.”

Danny Marks (Dublin City University)

“Polluting the Air to Feed the Animals in Thailand: Placing Food Production Systems within a Political Ecology of Climate Change Mitigation and Adaptation.”

ROOM 3

Islam and Identity Politics (FPA03)

Chair: TBA

Leigh Penman (Monash University)

“Lost in Translation: Evaluating the Ambonese Embassy to the United Provinces (1620-1631) between Success and Failure.”

Rudy Alam (National Research and Innovation Agency [BRIN]), Mulyana (National Research and Innovation Agency [BRIN]), and Aji Sofanudin (National Research and Innovation Agency [BRIN])

“Religiosity and Tolerance in Indonesia: Comparing Gen Y and Gen Z.”

Breechie Zarina Agbayani (Central Mindanao University)

“Muslim Resistance in Southeast Asia: The Case of Myanmar and Thailand.”

Media Bahri (State Islamic University [UIN] of Jakarta)

“Re-reading the Discourse on "Islamic Modernism" in Indonesia (Period of 1970-2010) in the Context of Responses to Modernity and Postcolonial Mentality.”

ROOM 4

Round Table Discussion with Short Film Screenings “An Experiment of Fluid Digital Database Making: Historical Films of the Philippine Osaka Bazaar in the Philippine and Trade in Southeast Asia (1920s–1930a)” (IPP01)

Chair: Michiyo Yoneno-Reyes (University of Shizuoka)

Speakers:

- Hiroshi Huzioka (Kyoto University)
- Jose Eleazar R. Bersales (University of San Carlos)
- Ricardo Trota Jose (University of the Philippines Diliman)

ROOM 5

Labor Migration & Human Trafficking (DPA09)

Chair: Therese de Langis (American University of Phnom Penh)

Jonathan Winterton (Leeds University Business School) and Matthew Haigh (Ravensbourne University)

“Labour Migration in ASEAN: political, social and economic perspectives.”

Waode Hanifah Istiqomah (Hitotsubashi University)

“Expanding Migration Infrastructure between Indonesia and Japan: Navigating the Dynamics of Labor Migration to a “New Destination”

Yety Rochwulaningsih (Universitas Diponegoro), Noor Naelil Masrurah (Nagoya University), and Fanada Sholihah (Universitas Diponegoro)

“Hidden Ties, Exposed Places: Trafficking in Women and Girls for Prostitution Business in Contemporary SEA.”

Jinyoung Park (Jeonbuk National University) and Heesuk Kim (Jeonbuk National University)

“Between Refugees and Migrant Workers: The Life of Myanmar Refugees/Migrants in Mae Sot, Thailand.”

ROOM 6

Peripheries and Development (BPA06)

Chair: Paul Quintos (City University of Hong Kong)

Yi-Yu Lai (University of Hawaii at Manoa)

“Measures Against Indigenous Peoples? Revisiting Violent Techniques through Dam Wars and Their Legacies in the Northern Highland Philippines.”

Achariya Choowonglert (Naresuan University)

“Narratives and Rituals: The Emergence of New Texts in Local Forest Governance of the Tai in Vietnam.”

Nasywa Ramadhani (Salsabila Islamic University of Indonesia), Alfredha Shinta Putri (Universitas Islam Indonesia), Miftahul Rizky Adrian Insani (Islamic University of Indonesia), and Hadza Min Fadhli Robby (Islamic University of Indonesia)

“Gender Mainstreaming in Indonesian National Police, 2015-2022.”

ROOM 7

Southeast Asia and Beyond: Inland and Maritime Dynamics Surrounding the Region

DPP02

Chair: TBA

Maynadi Kyaw (Kyoto University)

“U Ottama as a Travelling Nation-maker and Cosmopolitan Revolutionary.”

Sakine Nakajima (Kyoto University)

“Contemporary Dynamics of the Bay of Bengal Maritime World : Focusing on the Administrative Structure of Nagore Dargah Shariff in Penang.”

Ryoko Sakurada (Ikuei Junior College)

“Chinese Immigration from Hainan Island to the Malay Peninsula - A Tale of Another Coffee-Drinking Culture.”

Tatsuki Kataoka (Kyoto University)

“Highlanders as the Driving Force in Peripheral Politics to Connect China and Southeast Asia.”

Yu-sheng Lin (Academia Sinica)

Discussant

Break

3:00-3:30PM

Parallel Session 6

3:30PM-5:00PM / School of Economics

ROOM 1

PART B Rethinking and Decentering Trade, Exchange and Engagement in Island SouthEast Asia

Chair: TBA

Dedi Adhuri (National Research and Innovation Agency [BRIN])

“The Bajau Trepang Heritage: The continuous story and contemporary Bajau networks for Accessing the Australian Water.”

Leonie Stevens (Monash University)

“Currents of Encounter: Hidden networks and hierarchies of credibility on SEAsian waters.”

Ian J. McNiven (Monash University)

“Southern New Guinea: The least understood arm of the Asian Spice Trade network.”

Nurabdiansyah (Abi) (Universitas Negeri Makassar)

“Visual Design and Semiotic Meaning Analysis of Indigenous Artworks that Depict Makassar – Indigenous Australians Early Encounters.”

ROOM 2

ASEAN & Regional Diplomacy (GPA06)

Chair: Rosario Manalo (Philippine Women’s University)

Hanna Xena Mae Sumbi (West Visayas State University), John Rey Mar Flores (West Visayas State University), Ericah Villacarlos (West Visayas State University), Paul Jarron Macorol (West Visayas State University), and Christian Erick Baguio (West Visayas State University)

“The ASEAN Agreement on Disaster Management and Emergency Response: Evaluating ASEAN’s Disaster Response Framework.”

Hanna Patricia Cortes (University of the Philippines Diliman)

“The Role of the ASEAN Education Ministers Meeting in Southeast Asia's Regionalism.”

Thi Mong Tuyen (Tran National Cheng Kung University)

“ASEAN's stance towards Cross-Strait tension.”

Reymund Flores (West Visayas State University), Michael John B. Subigca (West Visayas State University), John Patrick S. Palquiran (West Visayas State University), Jose Emilio Luis T. Combatir (West Visayas State University), and Earlsen C. Pinuela (West Visayas State University)

“Situating China's Position in Global Conflicts: Its Implications to SIno-ASEAN Relations.”

Alessandro Vespini (Pusan National University) and Matteo Piasentini (University of the Philippines Diliman)

“Strategic Presence through Arms Sales: Analyzing South Korea's New Trend in Defense Exports and Foreign Policy.”

ROOM 3

Decolonizing Science (APA04)

Chair: Dulce Natividad (University of the Philippines Diliman)

Anna Melinda Testa - De Ocampo (University of the Philippines Diliman)

“Bahatol, Alexander Dalrymple, and the Natural Curiosities of Sooloo (1770).”

Vincent Bernabe (University of the Philippines Diliman)

“Microbial Doctrines: Filipino Medical Scientists and Germ Theories of Disease in the Late Nineteenth-Century Philippines.”

Jing Ying Yeo (Yale-NUS College)

“Corals felt and known: how Singaporeans story corals - and corals story Singapore.”

Kerby Alvarez (University of the Philippines Diliman)

“Framing the “Orient”: Austin Craig’s Philippine History and Oriental Studies, 1914-1933.”

Francisco Jayme Paolo Guiang (University of the Philippines Diliman and The Chinese University of Hong Kong)

“Decoloniality in history-writing: Renato Constantino, Syed Hussein Alatas and their philosophy of history.”

ROOM 4

Sociology of Migration, Mobility & Integration (DPA10)

Chair: Jocelyn Celero (University of the Philippines Diliman)

Thinh Mai Phuc

“Redefining Boundaries: Vietnamese Women’s Transnational Marriages in the Korean Context (Migration).”

Neville Jay Manaois (Ateneo de Manila University)

“Korean Migration in the Philippines: Place-Belonging.”

Justine Cabe (University of the Philippines Diliman) and Krislyn Hanna Barcelona (University of the Philippines Diliman)

“Labas at Lupa: The Mobility of Asi Copra Farmers & Families.”

Sonyaruri Satiti (Universitas Gadjah Mada) and Roxanne Bella (University of British Columbia)

“Joyce Street Justice: A Critical Autoethnography of Pilipinx Food Heritage Businesses in Vancouver, Canada.”

Rafael Jose Marquez Noel (Kyoto University)

“Post-pandemic food discourses in the Philippines: Social entrepreneurs and the corporate food regime.”

ROOM 5

Navigating Contentious Politics in Southeast Asia through Activism and Civil Society (BPP02)

Chair: TBA

Tuanont Phattharathanasut (Waseda University)

“The Rationale Behind the Adoption of Leaderless Mobilization in Thailand and Myanmar.”

Nur Adilla (Waseda University)

“A Feminist Analysis of Young Female Activists’ Self-Identity in Malaysia.”

Gita N. Elsitra (Waseda University)

“Examining the Role of Automated Catalysts on the 2023 Online Protests in response to the Indonesian Constitutional Court Ruling.”

Wichuta Teeratanabodee (University of Cambridge)

“MilkTea Alliance (Democracy Movements).”

ROOM 6

Practices and Projection of Power (FPA06)

Chair: Ariel Lopez (University of the Philippines Diliman)

Zizzle Dawn Sayson (Mindanao State University - Main Campus)

“Emergent Faces of Millenarianism in Island Southeast Asia: The Case of Philippine Benevolent Missionaries Association and Rock Christ Jesus in the Island of Mindanao, Philippines.”

Chrisian Ely Poot (Mindanao State University - General Santos) and Joshua Philip Castillo (Mindanao State University - General Santos)

“Apas Na Kamo Dayon (Come and Follow Through): A Re-examination to the Mindanao Migration Historiography, 1950s to 2010s.”

Yogi Febriandi (IAIN Langsa)

“Questioning Authenticity, Forging Traditions: Identity Making And Ethnic Competition In Riau After Indonesian Reformation.”

Kittisak Sujittarom (Chiang Mai University)

“Performing a Royal Portrait Spectacle: Olympic Boxing and the Cultural Politics of Thai Royalism, 1996-2016.”

ROOM 7

BOOK LAUNCH

Philippine Politics from Duterte to Marcos Jr: A Roundtable

Chair: Aries Arugay (University of the Philippines Diliman)

Discussants:

- Maria Ela L. Atienza (University of the Philippines Diliman)
- Rizza Kaye Cases (University of the Philippines Diliman)
- Jean Encinas-Franco (University of the Philippines Diliman)
- Ma. Diosa Labiste (University of the Philippines Diliman)
- Ruth Lusterio-Rico (University of the Philippines Diliman)

Film screening

5:00pm

Karatuan: Kudyapiq sa Lumang Maguindanao

[Karatuan: Kudyapiq of Old Maguindanao]

by Dr. Jose Buenconsejo

Day 3
July 20, 2024

KEYNOTE LECTURE 2

9:30am

Ramon Pagayon Santos
National Artist for Music
Professor Emeritus, College of Music
University of the Philippines

Break

10:30AM-11:00PM

Parallel Session 7

11:00AM-12:30PM / School of Economics

ROOM 1

De/Centering Philippine MusicS in Four Case Studies (EPP02)

Chair: Jonas Baes (University of the Philippines Diliman)

Patricia Marion L. Abrera (University of the Philippines Diliman)

“Constructing Place through the Pastoral: Art, Music, Painting, and Nationalism in Post-War Philippines.”

Marife Rebutar-Maquera (University of the Philippines Diliman)
“Alangan--Mangyan Traditional Song and Ritual and the Engagement with the Outside World.”

Geraldine Marie Gonzales (University of the Philippines Diliman)
“Maceda and the Piano: “Refinement” in the Philippine Musical ‘Avant Garde’.”

Patrick Paul L. Roxas (University of the Philippines Diliman)
“Distorted Horizons: An Exploration of “Filipino Electric Guitar Techniques” within the Pinoy Rock Paradigm of the Juan dela Cruz Band.”

ROOM 2

Politics and Social Media (IPA04)

Chair: Monfred Sy (University of the Philippines Center for Integrative and Development Studies)

Alexander Berghaus (University of the German Armed Forces Munich)
“Communicative Power in Philippine Local Elections - Social Media as a mean to undermine the hierarchy of Compadre Systems.”

Tom Sykes (University of Portsmouth) and Maria Diosa Labiste (University of the Philippines Diliman)
“The Great Woman Theory of Media History: Maria Ressa, Elite Liberalism and the Journalist-as-Influencer Brand.”

Kimiya Kitani (Kyoto University) and Toshiro Kamiya (Kyoto University and Kyoto Sankyo University)
“Database framework for small-scale datasets: some cases on field survey data collected in area studies in Southeast Asia”

ROOM 3

Elections and Weakening Democracy (BPA08)

Chair: Cleo Calimbahin (De La Salle University)

Anastacia Nurak (Warmadewa University)

“Weakening Democratic Institutions Towards Autocracy in the Electoral Process: A Comparison of Cases in the Philippines, Thailand And Indonesia.”

Hadza Min Fadhli Robby (Islamic University of Indonesia), Muhammad Maulidan (International Islamic University of Indonesia), Fuad Fahrudin (International Islamic University of Indonesia)

“Religious Authority and Democratic Backsliding in Indonesia and Malaysia: The Case of 212 Movement and Parti Islam se-Malaysia.”

Elvin Ong (National University of Singapore)

“Unexpected Handcuffs: How Open Bargains in Opposition Pre-Electoral Alliances Promote Authoritarian Comebacks.”

Zulfan Tadjoeidin (Western Sydney University)

“Comparative perspectives on electoral violence in Indonesia and the Philippines.”

ROOM 4

Localizing Wartime History: Cases from the Visayas region, the Philippines (DPP04)

Chair: Karl Cheng Chua (University of the Philippines Diliman)

Satoshi Ara (Ohtsuki City College)

“Filipino Collaboration and Atrocities in the Japanese-occupied Philippines and Their Unjust Judicial Consequences: A Case Study of Sagay, Negros Occidental, Philippines.”

Frances Anthea Redison (University of the Philippines Visayas)

“Women, Revelries, and Pageantry: Nuancing Wartime Collaboration.”

Taihei Okada (University of Tokyo)

“Japanese Civilian Experience in Cebu--Its Implications in the Historiography of the Japanese Occupation.”

ROOM 5

Discovering new skylines on the edge of the unipolar world: awaking the power of multilateral cooperation (GPP01)

Chair: TBA

Sergey Mikhnevich (Business Council of the Eurasian Economic Union) and Pavel Shaternikov (Institute of China and Contemporary Asia)

“Cross-format cooperation as a new basis for ASEAN diplomacy.”

Elena S. Burova (Institute of China and Contemporary Asia) and Narut Charoensri (Chiang Mai University)

“EAEU-ASEAN economic cooperation: prospects and challenges.”

Gregory Kucherenko (Institute of China and Contemporary Asia) and Vladimir Kolotov (St. Petersburg State University)

“EAEU as an alternative to Western and Chinese integration projects.”

Vladimir M. Mazyrin (Institute of China and Contemporary Asia) and Vu Thuy Trang (Institute for European studies)

“The experience of FTA building between the EAEU and Vietnam.”

ROOM 6

What is comfortable and sustainable cooling? :Exploring "airconditioning nexus" from a multi-disciplinary perspective (FPP02)

Chair: Kobayashi Satoru (Kyoto University)

Chika Yamada (Kyoto University)

“Rethinking thermal comfort in Southeast Asia’s urban landscape.”

Czarina Saloma-Akpedonu (Ateneo de Manila University)

“Keeping Cool in Metro Manila During the Pandemic: From Hyper-conditioned Environments to Public Green Spaces to Indoor Microclimates.”

Miharu Uchiyama (Kyoto University) and Hiroshi Aihara (Daikin Industrial Technology Innovation Center)

“Balancing Comfort and Sustainability in Air Conditioning - from the corporate perspective.”

Lunch

12:30PM-1:30PM

Parallel Session 8

1:30PM-3:00PM / School of Economics

ROOM 1

Governing from the Margins: The Money, Power, and Politics of Rebel Governance in Mindanao and Aceh (BPP01)

Chair: TBA

Cheng Xu (Smith College) and Jacques Bertrand (University of Toronto)

“Between the Ballot and the Bullet: Electoral Handicaps for Rebel-to-Party Transformations.”

Miriam Coronel Ferrer (2023 Ramon Magsaysay Awardee)

“Old structure, new forms: the Free Aceh Movement’s recasting post-disarmament.”

Tanya Bandula-Irwin (University of Toronto)

“Armed Group Taxation and Civilian Compliance in the Philippines.”

Luke Lischin (University of Toronto) and Alex Pelletier (Université Laval)

“Engaging Non-State Armed Groups: The Role of Multilateral Organizations and INGOs in Peacebuilding.”

Georgi Engelbrecht (International Crisis Group)
Discussant

ROOM 2

Performance and Heritage (Re)Creating SEA (EPA05)

Chair: Jina Umali (University of the Philippines Diliman)

Ilham Baskoro (Universitas Airlangga) and Aidatul Fitriyah (Universitas Airlangga)
“Local Wisdom Identity and Cultural Revitalization of Jaranan Mataraman in Sanan Village, East Java, Indonesia: A Qualitative and Ethnographic Approach.”

Gonzalo Il Campoamor (University of the Philippines Diliman)
“Japanese Proletarian Literature in Filipino: De/Centering Class and Colonial Discourses via the Transversive Practice of Literary Translation by the Periphery.”

Nariko Sugaya (Ehime University)
“Spanish Colonial Manila in Transition, ca 1790-1820: As Reflected in the Protocolos de Manila or Works of the Escribano Real y Publico.”

Genardi Atmadiredja (National Research and Innovation Agency [BRIN])
“De/Centering Indonesian Art Practice: A Critical Analysis of the History of Indonesia Art Competitions from 1994-2015.”

Ya-liang Chang (Huanggang Normal University)
“Exploring the Relationship between Modern Art in Taiwan and the Philippines: The Taiwanese Modern Painting Movement (1950-1960).”

ROOM 3

Geopolitics and Society (GPA05)

Chair: Sol Iglesias (University of the Philippines Diliman)

Maulana Amrullah (National Sun Yat-sen University), Huynh Tam Sang (Vietnam National University), and Aletheia Valenciano (University of the Philippines Diliman)

“Digital Narratives in Geopolitical Conflicts: A Comparative Analysis of Facebook Discourse in the Philippines and Vietnam on the South China Sea.”

Rul Lie Eugene Tan (ISEAS-Yusof Ishak Institute)

“Mediating Soft Power: Examining the role of Filipino domestic media on the reception of Chinese Soft power.”

Yumasdaleni (Badan Riset dan Inovasi Nasional [BRIN]) and Della Amrina Yusra (UIN Sultan Thaha Jambi)

“Dynamic Policies of Indonesia and Malaysia Concerning Indonesian Migrant Workers.”

Rogue Evangelino (University of the Philippines – Diliman)

“Refugee Crisis in Southeast Asia: Philippines role in terms of refugee protection in the region.”

Vincent Carlo Legara (Ateneo de Manila University) and Hansley Juliano (Ateneo de Manila University)

“Bernardo Carpio at Sea: Competing Perspectives on an Independent Philippine Foreign Policy.”

ROOM 4

The politics of friendship in the construction of empires and nations in Southeast Asia, 16th to 20th centuries (DPP01)

Chair: TBA

Arthit Jiamrattanyoo (Chulalongkorn University)

“Forging/Forcing Friendship: The Micropolitics of Friend-Making and Violence in Filipino-Spanish Oceanic Contact and Colonial Conquest.”

Benjamin Moseley (University of Hawai‘i at Mānoa)

“Religious Rivalry and the Language of Amity and Kinship in Early Modern Maluku.”

Jorge Bayona (El Colegio de Mexico)

“Re-inscribing amity: Christian-Muslim relations in the Philippines in the face of American Empire in the 1920s.”

Kelly Van Acker (University of Washington)

“Our language and our hearts will always be Latino”: Imagining future Philippine-Latin American friendship in the Philippines in the 1920s.”

ROOM 5

Transnationalism and Placemaking (FPA05)

Chair: Noel Moratilla (University of the Philippines Diliman)

Le Van Ton (Naresuan University) and Achariya Choowonglert (Naresuan University)

“Confucian Practices, Cultural Remittance, and Hybridization: Placemaking in Vietnam of Vietnamese Migrants in Thailand.”

Tatang Rusata (National Research and Innovation Agency [BRIN]) and Yoka Pramadi (National Research and Innovation Agency [BRIN])

“Reweaving Social Fabric: Tourism Strategies in Upholding and Revitalizing Chinese Culture in the Pecinan Area of Jakarta.”

Desmiwati (National Research and Innovation Agency [BRIN] and University of Indonesia), Yoppie Christian (Bogor Agricultural University), and Retno Widiastuti (National Research and Innovation Agency [BRIN]) (

“The Art Of Self-Reliant Community: The Inclusive Development In Peri-Urban Of Yogyakarta City, Indonesia.”

Thi Mai Thoa Tran (Université du Québec à Montréal)

“De-center urban studies from the edge of Southeast Asia: a case study from Vietnam.”

ROOM 6

Labor Regimes (CPA02)

Chair: Benjamin Velasco (University of the Philippines Diliman)

Paul Quintos (City University of Hong Kong)

“Viet Nam’s evolving labor regime: Social upgrading in Global Value Chains or passive revolution.”

Gabriel Pascua (Ateneo de Manila University)

“Precarious” Proletarianization in Southeast Asian Peripheries: A Comparative Political Economy of Proletarianization in Burma, Indonesia, and the Philippines.”

Kazuhiro Ota (Kobe University)

“Philippine Labor Regime: State and Neoliberal Capitalism.”

ROOM 7

BOOK LAUNCH

The Geopolitics of Green Colonialism: Global Justice and Ecosocial Transitions

Chair: Jean Encinas-Franco (University of the Philippines Diliman)

Speakers:

- Mary Ann Manahan (Ghent University)
- Rachmi Hertanti (The Philipp University of Marburg)

Break

3:00PM-3:30PM

Roundtable Discussion

3:30PM-5:00PM / GT-Toyota Asian Center Auditorium

“De/Centering Southeast Asian Studies and the Search for Relevance”

Caroline Hau (Kyoto University)

Syed Farid Alatas (National University of Singapore)

Ping Tjin Thum (New Naratif)

Moderator: Prof. Lulu Reyes

Gala Performance

6:00pm / GT-Toyota Asian Center Auditorium